Meet the Artists

Bree Lukosavich

Bree Lukosavich is a classically trained vocalist in the styles of opera, jazz and musical theater and has studied voice for 30 years and guitar for 20. She has performed solo and as a member of a choir at several noteworthy venues including professional sporting events and Carnegie Hall in New York City. As a board certified music therapist for 16 years, Bree has used live music in various clinical settings including hospitals and schools with individuals of all ages and abilities. Bree has experience in songwriting but mostly has used her composition skills to help clients write, record and perform their own original work. Bree was a member of Leadership Class of 2024, OTT!

Peter Troup

Peter Troup is a talented guitarist known for his free-spirited island-inspired music that instantly transports listeners to tropical shores. With a soulful blend of breezy melodies and rhythmic beats, Peter captures the essence of island life in every performance. Drawing influence from diverse genres, Peter creates a unique sound that feels both nostalgic and fresh. His intricate fingerstyle technique and warm, resonant tone showcase his deep connection to his instrument and the music he loves. Peter's charisma and connection with his audience make every show an unforgettable experience. Through his music, he aims to remind people to embrace the moment, live freely, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life.

Ricky Young

South Carolina native Ricky Young traveled a long and winding road to Nashville. As a former University of South Carolina alum and baseball player, he spent five years after college in the minor leagues, playing gigs anywhere he could find a stage and the time. In 2011 he met Grammy-winning producer, Nick Autry. The pair hit it off instantaneously and Young began traveling to Nashville from Carolina to record music. He has established himself as a student of the craft of songwriting, securing coveted co-writes with Luke Combs, Zac Brown Band, Lee Brice, and more. Young has toured and played nationwide since 2001 and has opened up for artists like Eric Church, Blake Shelton, Reba McEntire, Lee Brice, Darius Rucker, Montgomery Gentry, and many more. Most recently, Young partook in a year-long residency at Flora-bama where he played over 150 gigs since 2020. He now resides in Jupiter, FL where he writes along the coast and is living his best "pretired" life.

Strengthen your team by feeding hungry neighbors!

With your volunteer help, 12,000+ hungry neighbors will receive groceries weekly!

Volunteer as a group of up to 20 to give out meat, milk, produce, bread, and canned goods for 4 hours to hundreds of struggling families. Email Dan Shorter at daneshorter@yahoo.com to get on the schedule for upcoming morning and afternoon shifts in West Palm Beach on Saturdays. Must be 14+. To see what volunteers do and hear moms & dads say thank you, visit feedthehungrypbc.org and click on Videos top left.
